The Hellenic Foundation hosted an open house on January 15, showcasing its new offices, new staff and new offerings. Founded in 1953, the Hellenic Foundation continues to evolve. Board President Lou Apostol, Executive Director Christina Sofiakis and staff shared information on their programs, and discussed their new educational series that begins this month. In addition to case management, counseling and psychotherapy, find seminars, workshops, support and therapy groups and more. Check out www.hellenicfoundation.org.
